1000 - 1100 Hrs.	Flying for All - Inaugural Session

Air travel is growing rapidly around the world, and with hundreds of millions of people joining the global middle class. ICAO predicts that global air travel will double by 2030, which requires a commensurate doubling of the entire aviation ecosystem. Aviation is being transformed along multiple dimensions. Flying is becoming more affordable, far-flung destinations are being connected with long-haul flights, smaller towns are being included in the aviation network, technology-driven and diverse, aviation equipment's are being experimented with. Dignitaries will outline how national ecosystems are evolving to meet these growth requirements. In cusp of this aviation boom, the concept of enabling "Flying for All" will be unveiled.

1400 – 1500 Hrs.	Panel Discussion: Building a Robust Drone Ecosystem
Drones have multiple applications: many like basic surveillance, photography, or videos are already being used to transform daily work in some industries. Insurance companies are using drones to inspect damaged assets and farmers are sending them to monitor crops and collect soil data. Even more dramatic changes could be in store as innovators explore new uses, including drone-delivery services for retail stores and air taxis for commuters. This session will examine the future of drones with emphasis on technology, infrastructure, standards/regulations, safety, privacy, and public acceptance. India’s new Drone 2.0 regulations will be presented. 1400 – 1415 Hrs. - Setting the tone: Mr. Jayant Sinha, HMoS, Ministry of Civil Aviation (Presentation) 1415 – 1420 Hrs. - Drone Demonstration 1420 – 1455 Hrs – Panel Discussion Moderator: Ms Shereen Bhan, Managing Editor, CNBC-TV18 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mr. Piotr Samson, President of Civil Aviation Authority of Poland • Mr. Von Cameron, SVP Worldwide Operations, AirMap • Mr. Jon R Damush, Director, Boeing Next • Mr. Adam Welsh, Head of Asia Pacific Public Policy, DJI • Mr. Anil V. Air traffic at airports has been growing in all three segments- passenger, freight and aircraft movement. Governments acknowledge necessary infrastructure requirements and understand that access to appropriate financing is a major challenge. To harness the growth Governments have promoted private sector participation (PPP) to accelerate development of airports and financing/ leasing of new aircrafts catering to the demands of the Air carriers is an important area of discussion. New regulatory and financing models developed around the world will be discussed in the session. Various stakeholders, investors and banks will present their perspectives on economic and commercial models that ensures viability, predictability, stability and bolsters growth of the sector.
